Parents are RAVING...

I am truly grateful to you for being a mentor and role model for my girls, and for helping them learn to shine that light that's inside of them. The stage was full of people whose lives are better because of you. You've created a legacy that will spread far beyond what you'll ever know. So on behalf of the many parents who have trusted our kids to you I just want to say, thank you.

If your kid loves musical theater, this is the camp for them. This is the second Kevin Jones camp that Izzy has attended. She will definitely be back. She has found her people!

I can't say enough great things about the Kevin Jones Performing Arts Studio! Sylvia has grown and had such a great experience at these camps. If you have or know a kid who LOVES theatre, you owe it to them to check this out. Kevin Jones and his team provide an end-to-end, comprehensive, jam-packed week of theatre fun and training that can't be beat.

BROADWAY SHOWSTOPPERS

Dear Performing Arts camper,

2020 marks our 22nd year of providing quality theater camps for children and teens! We also welcome the return of our highly successful Broadway Masterclass Series, where our campers get to learn directly from Broadway professionals. And of course, we will continue to offer the stellar training that you have come to expect from KJPAS. Each camp ends with a fabulous showcase performance where our campers will show off their newly learned acting, singing, and dancing skills. The 2020 Camp Showcase theme is "Broadway Showstoppers"! Our talented campers will put on a show-stopping performance as the grand finale of camp! Our week-long Residential Camp will return to the beautiful shores of the Smith Mountain Lake 4H Conference Center in Virginia, and our six-day long day camp will once again be held at the Seacoast Church in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina.

Check out the links on the KJPAS website camp pages to see a listing of our past Broadway guest artists, our camp faculty, alumni accomplishments, and both parent and camper endorsements. Then check out the detailed camp descriptions and links to register for each camp, as well as lots of photos and videos of each of our camp offerings.

Wondering if our camp is the right one for you? After 22 years, our success rate speaks for itself. And we are still the only theater camp in the country to provide professional NYC quality color headshots and resumes as part of your camp tuition.

Whether you're a serious performer looking for quality training or a newcomer looking for a fun, positive theatrical camp experience, we have a place for you at our residential camp in Virginia, or our day camp in sunny Myrtle Beach, South Carolina.

Sincerely,

Kevin Jones

Artistic Director
